

Diana Blackmon Transition Scholarship

This is your opportunity to toot your whistle, blow your horn, and show us your stuff! By your example, you will help other special educators (and parents, too) find quality ways of improving the educational experience of students.

These grants have been developed with YOU in mind. We encourage you to apply and gain the opportunity to implement and share your exemplary ideas and programs.

Eligibility

Interns and teachers in their first five years, who are working at the secondary level or in middle schools, who are members of CARS+, and who are using the Transition to Adult Life document and/or CD are eligible to apply for this CARS+ award.

To Apply

Complete the information below and write a one-page description of how you are using the Transition to Adult Life document and/or Transition CD.

The Scholarship

Includes a one-year extension of your CARS+ membership and a free convention registration fee.

Winners will be selected at the January board meeting and be notified of the award by the end of January.

Please apply now! Deadline Dec. 15 2010

Submit to: CARS+ Linda Nimer, 1973 Norwich Avenue, Clovis, CA 93611-5234
